

PROVIDERS OF COURSES FOR COACH SAFETY CERTIFICATIONS

Before signing up for any course, be certain it is included on the list of courses currently accepted for certification by USA Swimming. This list can be found at www.usaswimming.org/coachmember (click on Learn More under Safety Requirements and then Acceptable Safety Courses under What's Related.)

American Red Cross: www.redcross.org/take-a-class

Select your location, a class category, and then click Find Classes.

A list of currently scheduled courses with locations, number of available seats, and cost will be generated.

Note: A certified Life Guard Instructor can certify that the in-water requirements of Safety Training for Swim Coaches have been met. If the LGI is not familiar with STSC, s/he can access the course materials via the ARC instructors' website under the Swim Coaches tab.

American Heart Association: <http://www.heart.org/>

Click on CPR & ECC tab then Select Find a Course

Select Classroom & Skills Sessions and Enter your Zip Code, select the radius

Click on the drop down to select the course that you need then click submit.

ASHI: www.hsi.com/takeaclass

Select American Safety & Health Institute under Find a Training Center

Enter Simple Search information and search for a specific course using the dropdown under Search by Program.

Then click Find a Training Center.

EMS Safety Services: <http://emssafetyservicesmirror.com>

Click on Training Programs tab to select course.

Click on Find an INSTRUCTOR tab to locate an instructor by state and locality.

A list of instructors with their contact numbers will be generated.

Emergency Care & Safety Institute: <https://www.ecsinstitute.org/student/FindCenter.aspx>

Enter appropriate information to find names of instructors with their contact information.

National Safety Council: www.nsc.org/products_training/Pages/Home.aspx

Click on Training

Select Find a Course Near You

Click on Training Center Directory and complete that appropriate information to find a course near you.